TOTALLY “AG”CITED AT THE YOLO COUNTY FAIR

Board of Directors - 40th District Agricultural Association
Vicki Pruner - President, Katie Villegas- Vice-President
Patty Bogle, Michael Mata, Jake Parnell,
Ernie Roncoroni,Sr., D.J. Sambucetti

We are sure that you will be “Totally “Ag”cited” about the 2010 Yolo County Fair. Where do you start? Take the tour of the Livestock barns and see the many animals getting spruced up for judging or just waiting in their pens to be viewed by fairgoers. Or maybe you want to see the interesting flower booths and the Flower House with the beautiful arrangements, the many cut flowers and the different potted plants. Now stroll around and see the outside commercial vendors with so many interesting things to purchase.

Are you hungry, then stop and check out the food vendors? There are your favorite places where you get your yearly “Fair-food” fix. And you will want to try some new ones to see just what they have to offer.

Take your time as you walk through the Main Exhibit Building filled with the many commercial vendor booths showing their different wares and literature. The Ag-Business Building is where you will find produce grown by our many exhibitors. Check out the Olive Oil Competition and the Amateur Wine exhibits. Feature Booths showing the agricultural diversities of the area and the local Community Service displaying their work in the community and other Ag-related organizations booths are also emphasizing their place in the community.

Your family, friends and neighbors’ homemade exhibits are located in Waite Hall with its Adult Arts, Crafts and Photography will keep your interest for hours; in John Rogers Hall our Junior Exhibitors have gone out of their way to provide you with many wonderful children’s handy work; and in the Home Arts Building you will find adult foods, preserves and textiles including a large show of Quilts.

Another “Ag”citing feature is the Antique Equipment in the Picnic Area. Go back in time and look at what your grandfathers used to work their crops or fight fires.

Are you “Ag”hausted? Then it is time to check out our great local entertainment. Located in the picnic area and near the Main exhibit building, continuous entertainment will entertain you from the afternoon way into the evening.

We hope that you have enjoyed your day(s) at the “Totally “Ag”citing 2010 Yolo County Fair.

See you at Fairtime

Yolo County Fair CEO, Rita Moore and Staff

Statement of State Officials

I am pleased to welcome you to the exciting world of California's agricultural fairs.

Each fair throughout our state reflects the unique values and heritage of its community through exhibits that showcase local livestock, crops, artwork, baked goods and crafts.

Our fairs offer an important link to our strong agricultural roots and serve as a reminder that California farmers and ranchers feed the world and fuel our economy. As a fair exhibitor, you play an important part in promoting this vital sector of our state's diverse and growing economy.

In addition to the livestock competitions and the many creative and educational exhibits, fair visitors enjoy the exhilaration of the carnival rides, the spectacular live performances, and of course, the food and games.

California fairs provide a rewarding and fun family experience, and I thank you for helping to enrich this summer-time tradition.

Sincerely,

Arnold Schwarzenegger
Governor, State of California

Dear Friends:

All over the nation there is a growing sense of regional pride in locally produced farm products. This appreciation and support is also finding its way into many of California's incredible fairs. The showcasing of California Grown products has always been a hallmark of our local fairs. The exciting new aspect about farm fresh products is the buzz we hear from the top culinary stars in America that repeatedly sing the praises of the California Cornucopia. With 400 different commodities produced in our state we have choices for everyone. The statistics show that one third of all the food each American eats each year comes from California! So what better way to get excited about this amazing fact than to recognize the wonderful opportunities that come with serving local fare at the fair!

I love eating at the fair! There are so many great comfort foods, exciting new cuisines, tasty treats and good old fashioned home cooking, that I never seem to get enough with just one visit. We can celebrate the incredible abundance that comes from health communities when we embrace California's fairs. The new age of celebrity chefs and culinary cook-offs creates yet another reason to come and enjoy a slice of life.

And it is a special life to participate with your local fair. Thank you so very much for your support and your devotion to your community! Have a great season

Sincerely;

A.G. Kawamura
Secretary, California Department of Food and Agriculture

In life, change is a given. That is as true for California's fairs as for anything else.

As we observe people's interests and how they make use of their discretionary time, we see many new activities and hobbies gaining popularity among all segments of the population.

While it is important to maintain the historical traditions of California's fairs, it is equally important to embrace the new and the innovative. It is with this in mind that fair exhibit programs are constantly looking for new exhibit possibilities to incorporate into their programs.

Fairs are all about participation -- taking part in your community event. What better way to participate than to enter one of the many exhibit categories found in this exhibitor handbook? History chronicles Fairs as events when people of all cultures come together once a year to exchange ideas, exhibit handiwork and share new creations. This is still the essence of Fairs today.

Only at a Fair can you enjoy the exhibits entered by your neighbors and actually be a part of your hometown celebration. Fairs build a sense of community pride unmatched by any other local experience. One of the most exceptional things about Fairs is their variety -- entertainment, food, carnivals, commercial exhibits and so much more. These are all wonderful reasons to attend your fair. However, the true centerpiece of the fair is the exhibit program -- still exhibits, hobbies, floriculture, livestock and all of the various activities that constitute your Fair!

Be a part of your Fair -- enter yourself, and support your friends and neighbors in their efforts by taking the time to look through the exhibit areas. It is a wonderful experience just waiting for YOU? Contact the Fair today and see how you can get involved and have fun at the same time.

Thanks your participating and I will see you --- at the fair.

Sincerely,

Michael F. Treacy
Director, Division of Fairs and Expositions
